the Public Complaints Commissioner

A civilian service set up to resolve disputes between
You and Your Police.

Sidney B. Linden, Q.C.
Public Complaints
Commissioner

During the course of this pilot project I am hopeful that I will be able to count on the support of the citizens of Metropolitan Toronto, the Metropolitan Police Force and the Metropolitan Toronto Police Association.

I am confident that the expressions of goodwill received since my appointment as Public Complaints Commissioner will continue to provide a foundation for an atmosphere of co-operation and mutual respect that will ensure the success of this unique experiment.

Sincerely,

SIDNEY B. LINDEN, Q.C.
PUBLIC COMPLAINTS COMMISSIONER

Mr. Linden is a native of Toronto who, until his appointment as Public Complaints Commissioner, was a prominent member of the criminal bar and a well-known labour arbitrator. He was General Counsel to the Canadian Civil Liberties Association and served on its Board of Directors. He was Vice-President of the Criminal Lawyers Association and also active on the Legal Aid Committee of the Law Society of Upper Canada.

Questions & Answers

about police complaints in Metropolitan Toronto

New procedures are now in place for handling complaints from members of the public against police officers on the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force. This new system is a marked departure from the previous one where the police alone were responsible for these matters.

A citizen can now lodge a grievance directly with an independent civilian who is not connected with the police in any way. This person, the Public Complaints Commissioner, has the power to do his own investigation, completely separate from that conducted by the police. He is responsible for making sure that all complaints concerning allegations of misconduct are dealt with promptly and fairly.

As well, he may order a public hearing by the newly-established Police Complaints Board. The members of this Board are also independent civilians.

The Public Complaints Commissioner is in a position to identify those police practices or procedures which may be particularly productive of citizen complaints and he can recommend that appropriate changes are made to remedy these situations.

To assist the public, the Office of the Public Complaints Commissioner has assembled answers to the following common questions often put to it about the Metropolitan Police Force Complaints Project Act, 1981.

Question

Where do I make a complaint about the conduct of a police officer on the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force?

Answer

You may make your complaint at any one of the following locations:

- a) the Office of the Public Complaints Commissioner, 157 Bloor Street West, Toronto, Ontario M5S 1P7, telephone: 963-1141.
- b) the Metropolitan Toronto Police Public Complaints Investigation Bureau, 3080 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario M4N 3N1, telephone: 967-2367.
- c) any police station in Metropolitan Toronto (telephone 967-2222 for the station closest to you).

Question

When does the Public Complaints Commissioner become involved with my complaint?

Answer

IMMEDIATELY. No matter where you make your complaint, a copy is sent to the Office of the Public Complaints Commissioner. He monitors the investigation from the start.

Question

Who will investigate my complaint?

Answer

Initially, your complaint will be investigated by a police officer from the Public Complaints Investigation Bureau of the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force. The Bureau is a separate unit within the Force.

If it is possible for your complaint to be resolved informally, the officer in charge of the Bureau may attempt to do so, but only if you and the police officer involved agree.

Question

Can the Office of the Public Complaints Commissioner investigate my complaint?

Answer

YES. The Public Complaints Commissioner can conduct his own civilian investigation 30 days after you make your complaint. In some situations, the Public Complaints Commissioner can start his own investigation immediately.

Question

When do I find out about the status of my complaint?

Answer

In general, within 30 days of making a complaint, you will receive an interim report on the investigation done up to that time. You will also receive further reports during the course of the investigation and a final report when it is completed. All of these reports are in writing.

Question

What happens after the final investigation report is made?

Answer

The Chief of Police will review the matter, decide what action, if any, is to be taken, and give written notice of his decision to you, the Public Complaints Commissioner, and the police officer concerned.

Question

What if I am not satisfied with the decision made by the Chief of Police?

Answer

You may ask the Public Complaints Commissioner to conduct a review. He may order that a public hearing be held by the Police Complaints Board, if he believes that it is in the public interest to hold such a hearing.

Question

What is the Police Complaints Board?

Answer

The Police Complaints Board is a group of civilians specifically appointed to conduct hearings into citizens' complaints about the conduct of police officers on the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force. The Public Complaints Commissioner is the Chairman of the Board and he assigns members of the Board to conduct these hearings.

Question

Do I have the right to attend the Police Complaints Board hearing and take part in it?

Answer

YES. You will be notified in writing of the date of the hearing. A lawyer will present the case to the Board but you may choose to be represented by your own lawyer or an agent. You will also be given a chance, before the hearing, to examine any written evidence or any report that will be given in evidence at the hearing.

Question

If the Police Complaints Board finds that the police officer is guilty of misconduct, what penalties can it impose?

Answer

The penalties that can be imposed by the Police Complaints Board depend on the nature of the misconduct. The maximum penalty that the Board can impose is dismissal of the police officer from the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force.

Question

What if I want to complain about a police officer who does not belong to the Metropolitan Toronto Police Force?

Answer

Consult a member of the police force concerned, the local board of commissioners of police or the local municipal council. You may also contact the Ontario Police Commission, 25 Grosvenor Street, Toronto, Ontario M4A 2G9, telephone: 965-6071.

Question

What if I want to charge a police officer with a criminal offence or sue the police officer in the civil courts?

Answer

Your right to take either of these alternatives is not affected by this new complaints procedure.

You may charge a police officer with a criminal offence by attending at the office of a Justice of the Peace. For the office nearest you, telephone 965-7541.

If you want to sue a police officer, you should contact a lawyer.

All civil suits and some criminal charges must be started within six months of the date the incident occurred.

Question

Where can I get more information about the Metropolitan Police Force Complaints Project Act?

Answer

You can obtain a copy of the Act from the Ontario Government Bookstore, 880 Bay Street, Toronto, Ontario, telephone: 965-2054.

As well, you can telephone the Office of the Public Complaints Commissioner at 963-1141.

If you make a complaint, you will be given a document that sets out the procedures that are followed and your rights under the Act.
